President Signs New Minimum Wage Law Today

Measure Increases National Minimum Wage From 40 To 75 Cents Per Hour

BILL IS SIGNED AT SPECIAL CEREMONY (BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—(INS)—President Truman signed into law today the bill increasing the national minimum wage from 40 to 75 cents an hour.

In a prepared statement, the president called the bill "a major victory in our fight to promote the general welfare of the people of the United States."

Special Ceremony

The bill was signed in a special White House ceremony attended by Labor Secretary Tobin, other labor department and wage-hour officials, Chairman Thomas (D) Utah, of the Senate Labor Committee, and labor leaders, including President William Green of the American Federation of Labor.

The president used a number of pens in the signing and distributed them among those present. In his statement, Mr. Truman said he regretted that the new law exempts from its provisions some workers who have been covered heretofore and that it fails to extend coverage to many other groups of workers who need its protection.

Effective In 90 Days

He added: "But the improvements made by the new act will go far toward achieving our basic purpose of assuring minimum labor standards necessary for health, efficiency and general well-being of workers."

The president pointed out that the new law becomes effective in 90 days. The main provision would require all employers to pay a minimum wage of 75 cents an hour to employees if they are engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce. This would mean wage increases of five to 15 cents an hour for approximately one million, 500 thousand wage earners.

The corporation, and six of its top officials were indicted by a Federal grand jury in Washington on October 21 for failing to register as agents of a foreign government.

Five of the officials are free in $15,000 bail and the sixth is somewhere in Russia.

Announcement of Amtorg's agreement to register "within a few days" was made by Isidore G. Needleman, general counsel for the agency, at a hearing in New York before U. S. Commissioner Edward W. McDonald.

The hearing, called to discuss removal of the case to Washington, was ultimately postponed until next Wednesday.

Retirement Of Adm. Denfeld Is Indicated

May Set In Motion Major Move To Complete Unification Of Forces

By DARRELL GARWOOD (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The expected retirement today of Admiral Louis E. Denfeld, chief of naval operations, sets in motion a major move to complete unification of the armed services.

Adm. Forrest P. Sherman, commander of the Sixth Task Force in the Mediterranean, is reported already chosen to be Denfeld's successor.

A wholly reliable Navy authority stated that the naming of Sherman to succeed Denfeld is planned today.

Announcement Expected

The announcement was expected to be made either by President Truman or Defense Secretary Johnson.

All other sources, however, refused to comment. There was no official confirmation of what would be the first step in a shake-up resulting from the unification row.

Denfeld's associates have said that he will relinquish his post only if he is forced out by presidential action.

Sherman's appointment is expected to set off a sweeping shake-up within the Navy, since the "top brass" has, for the most part, publicly endorsed Denfeld's charges of "arbitrary" and "improper" administration of the defense department by Secretary Johnson.

For the first time since he made his charges before the House Armed Services committee ten days ago, Denfeld met yesterday in a three-hour session with the other joint chiefs of staff.

Six Hundred Trains Taken Out Of Service

Nation's Railroads Make Cuts In Service Result Of Long Coal Strike

(By International News Service)

The nation's railroads began sidetracking 600 passenger trains today because of the coal shortage induced by the prolonged United Mine Workers' strike.

The halting of the coal-burning passenger trains began at 12:01 a. m. (EST) and will continue until the daily coal budget for such trains has been cut approximately 25 per cent.

The cut-back in passenger train service was in line with an order by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The eastern states bore the brunt of the service curtailment, with the western railroads unaffected by the shortage because of general utilization of oil-burning locomotives.

Eliminates 146 Trains

New York Central reported 146 trains eliminated from schedules. The same line cancelled plans for 24 football specials. Next hardest hit was the Pennsylvania railroad, with 103 regular trains abandoned.

Central of New Jersey halted 73, and the Long Island railroad stopped 42.

Washington, D. C., listed five trains as coal-strike casualties. One was a Pennsylvania train; two others operated by the Baltimore and Ohio, and the Chesapeake and Ohio listed two.

Reports Harmony

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, is all smiles as he emerges from the first meeting of the Joint Chiefs since the unification fight was aired before a Congressional committee. Bradley said the meeting was harmonious.

Senator Asserts Cold War Blocks Progress Of U.N.

Suggests That Threat Of Soviet Expulsion Might Get Results

PREDICT NO WAR IN NEAR FUTURE

By FRANK B. ALLEN (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—An atomic committee senator suggested today that Russo-American agreement might be achieved through the threat of Soviet expulsion from the United Nations. Sen. Johnson (D, Colo.), said also that the straightening out of East-West differences should go far beyond the atomic bomb problem, which he termed only a detail in the whole picture.

At the same time, Foreign Relations Chairman Connally (D, Tex.) said after a visit to the UN headquarters that there "will be no world war III right away."

No Foreseeable War

He found encouragement in UN argument and predicted that Russia has no intention of going to war in the foreseeable future. Instead, he said she wants to "conquer by infiltration." The UN atmosphere is good, he said, because:

"As long as you talk and argue you are not going to war. Talking has a fine international effect."

Johnson asserted that the cold war has blocked UN progress. He said: "The cold war between the United States and Russia has made UN completely impotent. UN is stymied, and will remain stymied."

Possible Ways Out

The Colorado senator saw two possible ways out:

1. The United States and Russia (Continued on Page Two)

Four Are Killed In Plane Crash

Plane Takes Fire In Air And Crashes Last Night Near Baltimore

PORT DEPOSIT, Md., Oct. 26.—(INS)—The Civil Aeronautics Authority and Maryland officials investigated today the crash of a private airplane in which H. L. Straus, president of Tropical Park race track, and three others were killed.

The twin-engine Beechcraft plane reportedly caught fire aloft during a heavy rainstorm and crashed last night en route from La Guardia Field, New York, to Baltimore.

Police identified the others in the plane as:

Wiley H. Maier, pilot, of Lake Worth, Fla., and Baltimore; Deaton R. Osborne, co-pilot, of Dundalk, Md., and Arthur J. Johnson, general manager of Straus' firm, the American Totalitarian Co.

The site of the accident is about 40 miles north of Baltimore in a wooded sector near the Susquehanna river where an Eastern Airlines DC-4 crashed on Memorial Day, 1947, after losing a tail assembly. Fifty-three persons were killed in that accident.

Noted Briton Is Killed In Fall

LONDON, Oct. 26.—(INS)—A lifetime of wealth and luxury linked with personal tragedy ended today with the death of the Hon. Peter Beatty, once called one of Britain's most eligible bachelors, in a six-story fall from London's fashionable Ritz Hotel.

Beatty, younger son of Admiral Beatty, hero of the Battle of Jutland in the First World War, was facing total blindness.

Thirty-nine years old and holder of a million dollar fortune, Beatty was born with a serious eye affliction and spent thousands of dollars on operations in Britain and the United States.

Tomorrow, he said, would be fair and cool, with a high in the low 50s.

Silent On Reports Of Navy Shakeup

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Secretary of Defense Johnson, right, and Secretary of Navy Matthews, left, talk with reporters after they had conferred with President Truman for nearly 30 minutes at the White House. Johnson declined to comment on reports of an impending shake-up in the Navy High Command. He admitted, however, that he and Matthews had conferred with Truman about recent Capitol Hill testimony on their inter-service battle over unification.

Alaska Gold Rush Is Being Investigated

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—(INS)—The Interior department is investigating the 1949 Alaska gold rush.

Department orders are on their way today to government agents in Alaska to look into the situation at Fishwheel, to determine, if possible, the true value of the reported gold find.

Federal land management director Marion Clawson dispatched a special message to Fred Wieler, manager of the Fairbanks Federal Land Office, asking for a full report.

Interior department spokesmen said their agency is chiefly interested in "the possible impact which the reported gold finds may have on Alaska's future economic development."

To help them estimate these factors, federal experts want to know:

1. If the discoveries made so far look like they'll blossom into a real strike or simply peter out like several others have.
2. What type of people and how many are moving to Fishwheel.
3. Exactly where the soundings are hunting gold and how many claims are being filed.
4. What kind of accommodation there are in the way of food and shelter for the modern Dan McGrews.

Some Hint Given Taft-Hartley Law May Be Invoked

Report Is Also Heard Of Possible "Improved Offer" In Steel Dispute

CHING CONFERS WITH STEEL HEADS AGAIN

By PHILLIPS J. PECK (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Federal officials hinted today that the injunction weapon of the Taft-Hartley law may be used to end the coal strike, but said there are no present plans to use the law in the steel shut-down.

The twin strikes, which are slowly throttling the nation's economy, were thoroughly discussed at a White House meeting following a report by Federal Mediation Director Cyrus Ching to Presidential Assistant John R. Steelman.

Coal Is Another Matter

One official who attended the meeting but declined to be quoted by name, said the government "has no idea" of using Taft-Hartley in the steel dispute, but he added that "coal is another matter."

Thus far, however, department of justice officials have been given no orders to act in the six-week-old walkout of John L. Lewis' 375,000 miners and are merely reported to be "standing by."

The interior department reported that the nation still has an average of 40 days industrial supply of coal although it is unevenly distributed.

Interior officials estimated that total industrial stock amounts to 33 million 500 thousand tons at the present time with another 11 million tons held by the steel companies whose production was shut off Oct. 1 by the strike of 500,000 CIO Steelworkers.

Hint Possible Offer

Cling will confer anew today with United States Steel officials in New York. He is hopeful that "Big Steel" will improve its offer to the union. The mediator spent five hours Tuesday talking with Bethlehem Steel representatives but reported "no progress."

Irving S. Oids, U. S. Steel board chairman, hinted that the company might be ready to make concessions when he said it would "be (Continued on Page Two)

New Eagles Club Addition Opens

Informal Opening Of New Club Rooms Is Being Held For Members Today

FORMAL OPENING TO OCCUR LATER

Members of New Castle aerie, No. 455, Fraternal Order of Eagles, South Jefferson and South streets, are enjoying the comforts and facilities of the major portion of the new addition which has been under construction since early this spring, for the first time today, when informal opening of the first floor section was held for the members.

Work on the renovation of the second floor is well under way. The latest anti-flooding move with more forceful measures. But the general impression was that the most probable move by Moscow would be a full diplomatic rupture with Belgrade.

Friendship Renounced

The USSR has already renounced its friendship and mutual aid treaty with Yugoslavia, which was to run for 20 years.

Despite continuing reports of troop movements in the Soviet satellites bordering Yugoslavia, informed quarters did not feel that an invasion was imminent.

Yugoslav Deputy Foreign Minister Leo Maticevich replied "nonsense" when asked if he thought the demand for Mrazovic's recall brought the situation closer to war. Maticevich said that Mrazovic, who has been in Yugoslavia for a month, had no intention of returning to Moscow.

Recall Of Tito's Ambassador To Soviet Demanded

By JAMES E. BROWN (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Russia's demand that Yugoslavia recall its Moscow ambassador jolted Europe today into a new spell of Balkan jitters.

The Kremlin announced last night that the Yugoslav embassy in Moscow was handed a note demanding that Ambassador Karlo Mrazovic be formally recalled. It accused him of "spying and subversive activities."

Diplomatic circles speculated whether the Soviets will follow up their latest anti-Tito move with more forceful measures. But the general impression was that the most probable move by Moscow would be a full diplomatic rupture with Belgrade.

Vishinsky To Reject Truman's Bomb Proposal

By PIERRE J. HUSS (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky is reportedly drafting today a sharp rejection of President Truman's call for adoption of the Baruch scheme for atomic control as "a good plan."

"The Russian shows no sign of yielding to Mr. Truman's plea and is on the contrary planning a counter-barrage at the first opportunity. This will come in U. N. either in the political committee as soon as Vishinsky's proposal for a big five peace pact is reached or when the special political committee deals with the problem of atomic energy."

A forerunner to Vishinsky's turn-down of the president's recommendation of the Baruch plan—which was overwhelmingly approved in the Paris assembly last year—is the expected publication tomorrow of the six sponsoring powers' report on their secret consultations over the past weeks. It is an open secret that the closed-door talks failed to solve the atomic deadlock, although the six are resuming their consultations next week.

TB Patch Tests Given To Pupils Of District One

Of 776 Pupils Tested 28 Were Positive Reactors; Will Receive X-Rays

Of the 776 pupils in district No. 1 schools in Lawrence county given tuberculosis patch tests 28 were positive reactors, it is reported by Mrs. Jane M. Cochran, executive secretary of the Lawrence County Tuberculosis society.

Mrs. Cochran, assisted by district No. 1 school nurse Mrs. Bessie Sloan, has just completed the patch tests in the first district.

Those students that have positive reactors will be X-rayed free of charge at the tuberculosis offices starting today to see if the tuberculosis is active.

The fact that these pupils were positive reactors does not necessarily mean that they have tuberculosis, Mrs. Cochran points out. It means only that they have been exposed to it. Whether it is active or not will be determined by the X-rays. If it is not active the body will soon destroy the germs.

District No. 1 consists of Hickory, Neshannock, Scott and Wilmington townships, and Wilmington and Volant boroughs.

sensible" for management and union officials to renew direct negotiations.

Olds also declared that a boost in the company's 10-cent "package" offer for pensions and insurance is "within the realm of possibility."

President Truman and his advisers apparently are reluctant to invoke the 90-day anti-strike injunction against the steelworkers because their walkout was originally postponed 77 days through White House intervention.

Coal Situation Different

In the coal case, there was no comparable delay in the strike nor has there been a fact-finding board study.

Lewis is seeking shorter hours, higher wages and an increase in the industry's 20-cents-a-ton contribution to the Miners' Welfare fund. Coal operators insist they cannot afford any increases because of loss of coal markets to other fuels.

Northern and Western soft coal producers broke off negotiations with the United Mine Workers last week to await government intervention.

Talks between the union and Southern producers are continuing at Bluefield, W. Va., but without progress toward a new coal wage contract.

Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern operators, charged that the UMW had handed him "an ultimatum" demanding that the operators accede to the union demands as a basis for further negotiations.

Westward, only Iowa suffered any great revision in its train schedules. The Rock Island line dropped two trains between Des Moines and Omaha, and two others between Des Moines and Kansas City. Two Cedar Rapids-to-Des Moines trains were stopped by the Burlington.

lia should have responsible leaders sit down around a table and work out differences.

2. If that fails, UN should go ahead without Russia. Johnson believes that the threat of a reorganized UN with Russia on the outside should overhang any attempts of the U.S. to reach an overall agreement with Russia—and that determined efforts should be made soon. He said:

Time Element Involved
"The time element is involved. There is grave danger in permitting the world to drift.

"I see hope for agreement. But we've got to keep pressing. It is already very late.

"And this problem is larger than atomic energy—it has to be an agreement on whether or not we want a peaceful world or a new war. Atomic energy is an incidental matter."

If agreement fails, Johnson declared, a UN without Russia is possible. He said:

"Without Russia, UN could go ahead and set up security agencies such as central intelligence an arms program, and social and economic alliances. It could make its decisions on the use of atomic energy.

"I don't like to suggest sanctions—but a reorganized UN could cut off supplies in the form of manufactured goods which Russia needs."

Helping to Avoid the Needless Expenses...

There are many occasions when it is more necessary to keep costs down than it is to have an elaborate funeral. This is especially true when a small estate must provide food and clothing for growing children.

The management of the Boyd Home for Funerals believes in that principle. We have aided many families to avoid needless expense and still have a funeral that was satisfactory in every way.

This is a matter that should interest the heads of many New Castle families. If you would like more information, do not hesitate to call for a frank and full discussion of the subject.

REPLYING TO WEDDING INVITATION

"How must I respond to an invitation to a wedding and reception which my husband and I cannot attend because they will take place too far away? The bridegroom is a close friend of ours but we do not know the bride or her mother (who issued the invitations). How soon and to whom should I make my reply? (2) How soon must I send a gift and to whom should it be sent—the bride or the bride and groom?"

Answer: Your regret should be thus worded: Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Robinson regret that they are unable to accept.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jones' kind invitation for Saturday the eighth of November.

Even though you do not know the bride or her family the acceptance of regret must be sent to the bride's parents, who issue the invitations.

The gift must be sent to the bride as soon as possible after receipt of the invitation.

Question: I shall be married soon and would like the answers to the following questions: (1) If the bride's father is deceased is it proper for her to ask a personal friend to give her away in marriage? (2) Would a white water-silk taffeta wedding gown be appropriate for a fall wedding?

Answer: (1) She should have her brother, her uncle or an old family friend give her away.

(2) Yes, quite appropriate.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

Blue Monday Reflects Emotional Struggles

Monday is a day of gloom and groans to some people. Why can't Tuesday be the first day of the week? So what should you do on "blue Monday"? Among other things, don't wear blue. Certain colors are known to produce certain emotional effects. Red, for example, symbolizes courage, generosity and vigor. If you want to spend your day being charming, controlled and cool wear maroon. The day on which you sport a new orange sweater will be a day of action and friendliness. You will also show a marked love for life.

On the day you are to solve some problem, wear yellow, since it promises to loan intellectual power. By the way, maize also encourages imagination.

So you are a liberalist—then green is your color. You may even be a hero because calculated courage plus tolerance accompany liberalism. And if you want to appear older, dress in yourself in blue-green which supposedly brings forth maturity, capability and discrimination.

Self-satisfaction and laziness are sure signs that either you or your best friend is wearing purple. Brown denotes obedience and deliberation. Gray will keep you in a calm, restrained state.

For all you little innocents, white brings out the best of naivete, innocence and trust. A turn-about-face brings to view the ladies of mystery and sophistication who should shroud themselves in black.

The idea is that certain colors produce psychological effects on yourself and others. But, beware of the person in purple with green polka dots! He may be dangerous. Of course, one could resort to dark glasses or goggles and see all the world as a nondescript conglomeration tinged with green or amber.

Some parts of watches are fitted to within one-fiftieth the thickness of a hair.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Junior Experts

Mrs. Knowles was talking with some of her friends about the way Social Studies was being taught in the high school. At one point, she said, "Let's ask Mary Ann (her fifteen-year-old daughter). She ought to be an expert on that." And so for 20 minutes, Mary Ann gave her ideas about what was being done.

Too seldom do we stop to think that our children may be the experts on a good many things. Yet we all know that many a boy knows far more about radio than does his dad. And it's not at all unlikely that girls who have had good courses in clothing at school may have better ideas about style and color combinations than does mother. In all sorts of areas the youngsters are the experts as far as the family is concerned.

The lift they get when they are called on to play the expert's role is a very important part in the growth of self-confidence. It also makes them appreciate their parents or other members of the family who look to them for help and advice.

Parents don't need to feel that because they are older and more experienced in many ways, their youngsters should always be seen and not heard. We'll learn a good many things and grow to appreciate our children if we give them the chance to be experts when the situation warrants it.

Postmaster Hanna Speaks To Kiwanis At College Town

Tells Of Operation Of Polio Fund; Club Pushes Halloween Parade Plans

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 26.—William Hanna, New Castle postmaster and county chairman of national polio fund, spoke at New Wilmington Kiwanis Monday evening.

Mr. Hanna informed the group of the condition of Warren Rotgaber, RD. 2, New Wilmington, who is afflicted with polio. Rotgaber has been removed to the Watkins Home, Leetsdale, Pa., one of the best equipped polio hospitals in the state.

Mr. Hanna explained how the polio fund helps families and persons who have the disease. He recommended that members of the Kiwanis club travel to Leetsdale and inspect the Watkins Home. It was also stated that Rotgaber, who is one of the more serious cases of polio in the county, may be kept in the Watkins Home for a year or more.

Also attending the meeting was L. C. Mantz of Kiwanis, who spoke of the district training schools for officers.

It was voted to send $10 in subscriptions of magazines to young Rotgaber for the coming year.

Finishing touches were made on plans for the halloween parade to be held Monday evening in New Wilmington. Wives of members were requested to donate a cake to the affair.

The parade is sponsored each year by the Kiwanis. It will start Monday at 7 p. m., march from the school yard through town and back to the school yard.

Prizes totaling $197.50 will be awarded to best costumed persons, groups and floats in the parade.

The Horseshoe Trail, in the heart of the Pennsylvania Dutch country, begins at Valley Forge, and runs through Chester, Berks, Lancaster, Lebanon and Dauphin counties. It ends at Manada Gap. This 120-mile trail is picturesque and free of motor traffic.

The Huichol and Cora Indians of Mexico send expeditions each year several hundred miles across the Sierras to hunt hikule, a narcotic cactus, which, taken in small doses, enables the consumer to endure long forced marches with neither food nor drink. The narcotic is used ceremonially by the Indians to induce religious ecstasies.

IN THE OPEN

October's fields and fencerows have succumbed to an acute case of wanderlust. Professional hitch hikers are everywhere alert for the chance to pick up a free hop to far away places. Many of these nomads will ride the skyways, snug in the "holds" of tiny feathered airliners. Others are pick-a-back travelers, foisting themselves on passing cattle and sheep and other wayside wanderers.

Many of these tourists are completely self-reliant. They were threading the air lanes, riding drafts for centuries before man mastered the art of gliding. Every water course in the land, from lowliest rill to mightiest river, freights their buoyant caravels each fall.

We hiked a mile or two in fence-row country, noting these voyagers thumbing for lifts all along the way. The bladdernut had hung its branches full of the rattlebox bladders, planning to have some of these light caskets float off to see the world on the valley stream. There is method in this madness of course. The idea is for these rafts to lodge at some distant port, there to discharge their cargo of sleek seeds, and thus start a new bladdernut colony.

Beggar Ticks Cling

Beggar ticks of the tick-trefoil took hold of our clothing as we passed by. In thick going many of these free riders were brushed off, far from the parent plants. A sizeable section of one long fence-row was aflame with the scarlet of bursting wahoo berries. Farther along we found several clusters of the blue-black fruits of the moon-seed. These fellows depend on the birds for their transportation, and accordingly offer lunch to pay their fare.

Empty seed capsules of the witch hazel and the wild cucumber bore eloquent evidence of the sudden explosions which had catapulted their seeds to fresh fields. We even came upon a late-blooming touch-me-not with several fat seed pods still intact. The outdoors novices in our party got a great kick out of pinching these pods and watching the seeds fly wide and far.

Thisledown was in the air. Late dandelion seeds were riding the breeze, as were the fragile argosies of the milkweed, ironweed and the goldenrods. The winged keys of the box-elder were ripening against the day they will cut loose in the bluster and say goodbye to the parental roof. Hard by a small grove of ash the ground was covered with thousands of winged seeds.

Travel by Squirrel Power

The walnuts and the hickories travel by squirrel power. The bushy-tailed fellows bury so many nuts that some survive the winter feast days and push their rootlets into the warming Springtide earth. Bumblebees and Spanish needles jumped aboard as we brushed through the tangles, and at every step in the weed-choked areas we broadcast hundreds of tiny seeds, manufactured by a great variety of wayside plants.

There is a solid lesson in all this hitch hiking for the char-warrior who stops to read. Survival in the fierce competition of the thickets is only assured by production and more production. The roadside seed factories work mightily at the task day in and day out. Here there are no costly slow-downs, nor stoppages to argue over police.

The successful residents of the fence rows learned long ago that such foolishness is fatal in the long run. Accordingly the assembly lines never halt from the time the plant pokes its head out of the ground until the ripened fruits are on their way to carry on the family.

In Remote Valley

A glorious October weekend found us in a remote valley for a short stroll. We had hardly left the car when a big pileated woodpecker complained from the far hilltop. I saw him for a moment before he flew beyond the ridge, and wished him luck in the shotgun barrage which will soon engulf his peaceful haunts.

Indian currant was in heavy fruit all along this valley. This is the coral berry handled by many nurseries. Apparently this shrub is common enough throughout the territory, but I had never noticed it growing wild before. A paper hornet's nest lay in the shrubbery by the roadside. Probably some schoolboys had knocked it down and left it there. I brought it along home and gave it a place of honor in my den, to serve as a reminder of better days when the winds blow chill.

Boston University Coed Found Dead

Tells Family Of Fall River, Mass., She Has "Great Decision To Make"

FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 26.—(INS)—A 19-year-old Boston university coed was found dead of gas poisoning Monday a few days after she told her parents she had "a great decision to make."

The girl, Gwendolyn Shapiro, was pronounced a suicide by medical examiner Thomas E. Boylan. Her body was found in her Fall River home.

Just last week Miss Shapiro baffled her family and friends by disappearing without explanation and then—when she was located in a Springfield, Mass., hotel—telling them nothing except that she had run away to make "a great decision."

Police indicated the girl's family could give no more reason for her suicide than they could for her temporary disappearance.

Former Inspectors Indicted By Jury

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—(INS)—Two former Philadelphia city building inspectors were indicted by the October grand jury Monday on charges of extortion and bribery.

The defendants are Joseph Scott and Frank Fitzpatrick and both were accused by Richard T. James of 307 Oxford road, Brookline, Pa., president of a firm which makes steel springs for toys.

Scott is accused of taking $125 from James and Fitzpatrick is charged with taking $25 from him. The money was allegedly paid to permit additional building operations.

Today's Fashion Flash

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—(INS)—Prediction that women will revert to the flat-chester, boyishness of the 1920's are only "style-scares," according to top experts.

Fashion Designer Claire McCardell and Corset and Brassiere association spokesman Fletcher Dodge said today that women will never be curve-constricted again to that extent.

Said Miss McCardell: "We designers may pick up some style traits of the '20's—but only in the better ones. We'll keep curves."

Said Dodge: "We in the corset and brassiere industry have benefited by experience. Many a former flapper has suffered physically from the damages of the constricting garments of that era."

"We refuse to let her do it again!"

Start Pumping Water From Hull Of Liner Noronic

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 26.—(INS)—Three steam pumps started on Tuesday the task of pumping tons of water from the charred hull of Great Lakes liner Noronic, which burned at Toronto on Sept. 17 with a loss of at least 140 lives.

Authorities said additional bodies may be found beneath the ship's hull when it is raised.

Meanwhile coroner officials still are attempting to identify some 20 victims whose charred bodies are encased in steel caskets. They hoped that toe-prints, taken in Cleveland as a college lad, might enable them to identify one body as that of Mrs. Dorothy Coleman Timanus, wife of a Cleveland doctor. Her husband is among the known dead.

W. C. T. U. To Have Workshop Thursday

Five-County Meeting Will Take Place In First Methodist Church

Paul Graham, Lawrence county, offers the noon prayer, luncheon will be served by women of the church. The group will also participate in the noon meditation of the host church.

Highway Deaths Lower This Year

Pennsylvania Cut Labor Day Toll In Half While Nation Total Increased

HARRISBURG, Oct. 26.—(INS)—Highway deaths totaled 976 during the first eight months of 1949—a drop of 32 for the same period a year ago.

The state bureau of highway safety, celebrating its first anniversary, today said during the first two-thirds of this year 596 persons were killed on rural highways and 380 on urban roads.

The bureau boasted Pennsylvania cut its Labor Day weekend death toll from 26 in 1948 to 13 this year while "the national toll was one of the most appalling in history."

Total number of pedestrians killed on roads in the first eight months of this year was 411—171 rural and 251 urban for a 422 sum. Automobile accidents in which more than one person were killed showed an improvement so far this year with 119 fatalities in 54 accidents. In last year's first eight months 64 multi-fatal accidents claimed 145 lives, the bureau said.

MARRIAGES DECLINE

ROME—The number of marriages decreased and infant mortality increased in Italy during the first six months of 1949, the central office of statistics reported. About 1,500 fishing hooks can be made from one pound of steel wire.

SEE and HEAR OLSEN and JOHNSON'S FIREBALL FUN-FOR-ALL every Thursday on Television

This One's Changing a Lot of Minds

MOST people have a habit of setting their sights on cars of a certain "price level"—and making a choice on the basis of what they can afford to buy.

Then, on the scene, came this stunning beauty—and in a few short weeks turned a whale of a lot of decisions in a brand-new direction.

Why not—folks figured—get really fresh style lines and that stout bumper-guard grille that can take any normal impact yet won't "lock horns" with cars ahead?

Why not get good, substantial road-weight and a lot more interior room when they come in a car that's shorter in bumper-to-bumper length for easier parking, garaging and handling in traffic?

And why, the shrewd shoppers asked, take anything less than this straight-eight thriller when it wears a price tag that any new-car buyer can reach, and actually costs less than many sixes?

Truth is, this spanking-new Buick SPECIAL turns a searching light on every car in its price range—on many above and below too—and looks the better for it every day.

Better in its advanced styling and amazing interior roominess and traffic-handly size.

And certainly far better in the lift and life of its valve-in-head Fireball power—the level-going steadiness of its buoyant Buick ride—the silken luxury of Dynaflo Drive, optional here at modest extra cost.

So why not set your sights on this beauty of a buy and let the facts of hardpan shopping comparison open your eyes to a new opportunity?

Your Buick dealer will gladly let you sample its sparkling action on the road—and give you the news on how quickly delivery can be made. Go see him—and get your name on the dotted line.

Tune in HENRY J. TAYLOR, ABC Network, every Monday evening.

As a tough, air-tight, water-proof coating, Rust-Oleum fights off the steady deterioration of metal surfaces. Rust-Oleum provides lasting, money-saving protection. It seals metal so the oxygen in the air cannot reach it. By special penetration of the oils used, rust already started is incorporated right into the coating itself to form a rust inhibitive, air-tight, and water-proof film. Not only this, but Rust-Oleum goes farther and lasts longer!

4 POINTS OF SUPERIORITY

• Apply directly over any rusted surface. Simply wire brush to remove rust, scale, blisters and dirt.

• Rust-Oleum penetrates rust, incorporating it into the coating, and spreads an unbroken protective film over the entire surface.

• Quick—Simple—Easy to Use—Saves time, labor and money. Apply by brush, dip or spray.

• Covers more per gallon... Lasts longer!

Electric Show Attracts Many On Opening Day

Cathedral Basement Is Crowded With Folks Interested In Appliances

SHOW WILL END
THURSDAY NIGHT

Around 1,000 people attended the "Better Living Show" on opening day Tuesday in the Cathedral, where the great exhibition of the newest things electrical are being shown through the cooperation of 14 distributors and 49 dealers of electrical appliances in Lawrence county.

In spite of threatening weather Tuesday afternoon, 500 people, mostly women, were on hand for the electric range demonstration at 2 o'clock, when Miss Virginia Pierson, home service supervisor of the Pennsylvania Power company, showed how the homemakers can prepare tempting dishes on an electric range, with a minimum amount of attention.

Many Features
Another feature of the show is the exhibition of a "color film, 'The Constant Bride', which was presented several times during the afternoon and evening, showing how the young homemaker gets off on the right foot with an all-electric kitchen.

What interested most of the folks attending, however, was the drawing for the prizes which are given away each day, along with toasters, waffle irons, clocks, radios, lamps, percolators, irons, etc.

The numbers of those winning awards are to be published later in the week, but many were on hand yesterday when the drawing was made and claimed their prizes.

It is expected that record crowds will be present this evening tomorrow afternoon and evening, when the show will be brought to a close.

It is one of the finest exhibitions ever staged here, and the electric dealers and distributors are to be commended for arranging the great spectacle.

To aid a worthy cause, a small admission charge is being made, the entire proceeds going to the Lawrence county chapter of the Infantile Paralysis Foundation, which will receive a nice sum from the exhibition to carry on its work among polio sufferers in the county.

Fullerton Speaks To State Grange

KANE, Pa., Oct. 26.—Addressing opening of the Seventy-seventh annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Grange here Tuesday, W. Sharp Fullerton, of New Castle, State Grange master, hit a subsidy program as "not economically sound," and recommended opposition to Federal aid to education at some grade and high school levels.

Fullerton also cited attempts to amend the Federal law on oleomargarine and urged the association to make its position clear in favoring retention of the Federal statutes now in effect.

More than 1,000 delegates and members of Grange organizations heard Fullerton as the three-day state conventions sessions opened.

Clarification Of Fact Finding Report Sought

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 26.—(INS)—Crucible Steel company bid today for a resumption of steel bargaining talks on a company-by-company basis and a re-call of the Fact-Finding Board to clarify its report. Crucible, one of the smaller steel companies with about 9,334 employees, has maintained from the outset that it could not afford to pay 10-cents hourly per man for pensions and insurance.

President William H. Colvin, Jr., in a telegram to Federal Mediation Director Cyrus S. Ching, said: "Find out from the steel board itself what it actually meant by good faith, individual collective bargaining. Only the steel board can make this clear. Then bargain on this basis."

Recall Glory Of Cruiser Olympia

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—(INS)—The Cruiser U. S. S. Olympia slept away another day of quiet glory at the U. S. naval base in Philadelphia.

And even fewer remembered that at the battle of Manila Bay, May 1, 1898, Adm. George Dewey stated from the Olympia's bridge: "You may fire when ready, Gridley."

The cruiser was ordered scrapped in 1922, but protests forced cancellation. The Olympia's anniversaries were celebrated from time to time, but eventually were forgotten.

THE TRUTH!

The citizens of Lawrence county pay a conservatively estimated tribute of $100,000.00 a month to racketeering interests, whose leaders live outside our community. Most of this money leaves Lawrence county—no good use is ever made of it. These activities are a matter of common knowledge: are only possible because of insincerity of purpose in this particular field of law enforcement.

The question before you, as a voter of our county, is not one of party politics or personal commitments, but one of RIGHT or WRONG.

No political machine should be able to BUY or influence your vote when the matter of your protection is at stake. The racketeering interests must go, for they are a center of political corruption.

"Assignment; America"

By INEZ ROBB

(Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.)
(Distributed By International News Service)

LONDON. (By Mail)—(INS)—It is the fashion among American visitors in England to view with alarm. However, I do not believe that a 36-hour visit with old friends entitles me to write a treatise on "The Decline and Fall of the British Empire."

Furthermore, I have discovered a rainbow in the sky, a surprising burst of sun amid the clouds, and where least expected. The British, Lor' Luv'em, are making better coffee. In less difficult days than these, this would be stop press news. Because what the English have been able to do with coffee in the past shouldn't happen to an old bean.

Where Credit Belongs

I do not know to whom the kudos and credit belong for this revolutionary state of affairs, whether to the Laborites or the Conservatives. But the party that can definitely prove its responsibility for this development is certain to get the American tourist vote in any future election.

If the marked improvement shown in British coffee since I was last here almost two years ago continues apace, it should be practically fit to drink in another 12 months.

I realize that these are fighting words, as nothing riles another nation, I have discovered, like casting aspersions on its culinary achievements. But the English, Lor' Luv'em, hate American tea, and have been almost as vocal in their dislike as Americans in their disparagement of British coffee. If, indeed, such it was.

First Encounter

My first sensational encounter with this new and improved British coffee came this morning with my breakfast tray at the Savoy Hotel. Woman and not so much girlie, I have been stopping at the Savoy off and on for years without ever being able to tell the difference between its coffee and the residue at the bottom of a barrel of sheep dip.

But, in the past, this has also been true of coffee at Simpson's, Ruel's, Claridge's or in private homes, great and small. In all these years, I have never been able to ferret out the true secret of British genius for lousing up coffee.

But I have nurtured the dark suspicion that the British, whom no amount of persuasion will woo away from their dark habit of pitching baking soda into their boiling vegetables, also added a jigger of soda to the coffee pot. Otherwise, how could it taste so awful?

To My Amusement

So this morning I was prepared to wrangle once more with that built-in, dark brown taste of ye true olde English coffee. To my amazement, what poured from the pot not only looked like coffee and smelled like coffee but darn near tasted like coffee.

In the interim, I have lunched and dined in two English homes and had coffee at Simpson's in between. And tonight my astonishment knows no bounds. It is not only the Savoy whose coffee is infinitely better, but English coffee in general.

A little detective work has revealed that this miracle has been wrought by no spontaneous combustion, but by British need for American tourist dollars.

At the beginning of the tourist season of 1948, the government began an all-out campaign to improve the quality of British coffee.

Government Aids

The government even distributed a bulletin, with lengthy instructions on the proper preparation of coffee. The instructions are a bit erratic, including an admonition to steep in a stone jug or crock. I would regard this recipe with a jaundiced eye if the state of British coffee had not undergone such a striking metamorphosis.

With a little more coaxing and perhaps the loan of a good Marshall Plan recipe for coffee, the British brew ought to be drinkable in short order.

Undoubtedly the British are caught up in the time of great crisis. But let no man count ten over this bull dog breed when, through its own efforts, it has instituted this sweeping coffee reform.

Furthermore, if the British can learn to make decent coffee, I have full confidence in Americans that we can eventually get the hang of making tea fit for Englishmen to drink.

I am going home to spread the gospel. Noblesse oblige.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

Whitney Bolton discloses this bit of Hollywood lore: "While toiling in the employ of David Selznick, I received an urgent memo from him one morning which read, 'Must have a new name for Phyllis Isley Walker by Monday.' I forgot about it until I was driving my little boy to school, on my way to the studio, on Monday morning, and he began singing a kid song which goes 'We've come to see Miss Jenny Jones, Miss Jenny Jones, Miss Jenny Jones...'"

"That did it. I sent this memo to Mr. S.: 'After long hours of thought, I have evolved a provocative and memorable name. It combines an unusual first name with a plain second one. It is strange, off-beat, and not easily forgotten. Jennifer Jones! I feel so strongly about this I will not clutter up your time with further useless suggestions.' Need I add that Mr. Selznick agreed with me?"

"Hey, mom," said a kid on the crowded East Side, "can Willie and me each have an apple?" "I should say not," his mother replied. "You boys seem to think apples grow on trees!"

Murder And Suicide Police Report Of Tragedy In Home

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Oct. 26.—(INS)—Police today listed the deaths of a striking Bethlehem Steel Corp. worker and his wife as a case of murder and suicide.

The dead were Andrew Bolecz, 54, and his wife, Lena, 49. Dr. D. F. Bachman, Northampton county coroner, said Bolecz shot his wife in their second floor apartment last night and then turned the weapon on himself.

The tragedy was discovered by the couple's daughter, Mrs. Joseph Horwath, who lives on the first floor. She found both dead of wounds inflicted by a .12-gauge shotgun.

Bachman said the shootings climaxed a series of quarrels between the two. The couple was married in Yugoslavia in 1917 and came to America shortly after World War One.

VOLANT

CLASS PARTY

Eighteen members of the Junior class of the Volant Methodist church school held their annual halloween party at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Ralph Buchanan, Friday evening.

All were in costume and were masked, with Elaine Wilkin and Jimmy Houston being awarded prizes for the prettiest costumes, and Elizabeth Buchanan and David Shaw for the funniest.

Margie Lesnett won a rubber band-donut contest, Carter Tom Johnston a balancing act, Paige Wilkin and Elaine Byers, Ronnie Carr and Chuckie Shaw a race with twine and spoons, and Elizabeth Buchanan in guessing the old witches' notions. With fortunes concealed in apples which had to be bobbed for, Elaine Wilkin won the Lucky 13. Jerry Carr won in another race on the floor on all fours.

A game of witches' bat and the reading of a mysterious message from a long departed ancestor, by Mrs. Charles Horner, followed.

Refreshments were served by the older girls.

It was the farewell party of the class for Marleen Lesnett, Dorothy Lancaster and Jim Houston, who have been promoted, and a welcoming party for the new members, Paige Wilkin, Elaine Byers and Ronnie Carr.

Sunoco Dynafuel proved superior to 7 leading premium-priced gasolines

...for smoother anti-knock performance in all cylinders

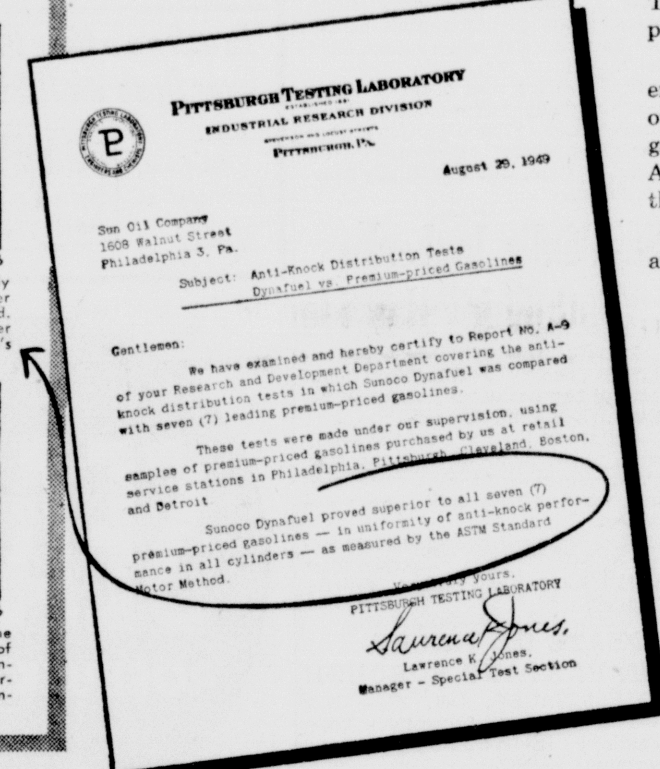

Anti-knock Performance ... Cylinder by Cylinder!

See for yourself in chart above... practically no variation of anti-knock power from cylinder to cylinder when Sunoco Dynafuel was tested. That's why you get smoother high-test power when you use Sunoco Dynafuel in your car's engine.

Here's how a typical premium-priced gasoline compared under same test. Great variation of anti-knock power in different cylinders is instantly apparent. In your car this means "under-fed" cylinders... probable knocking in cylinders 1 and 4.

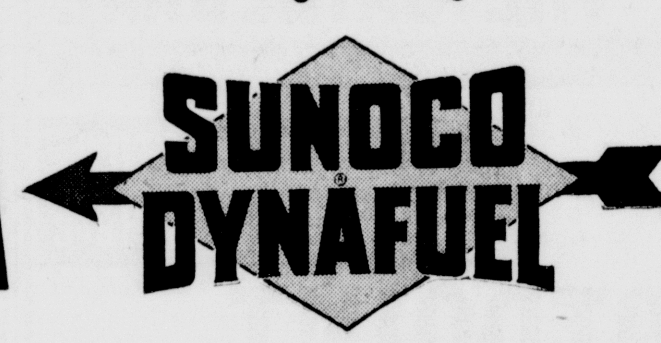

Think of it... Sunoco Dynafuel out-performs leading premium-priced gasolines—yet saves you up to 2¢ a gallon!

Certified tests prove Sunoco Dynafuel's superiority for delivering smoother anti-knock performance in all cylinders—not over ordinary or regular gasolines—but over 7 leading premium gasolines. And for additional proof: remember—more Detroit Automotive Engineers use Sunoco Dynafuel in their own cars than any other gasoline... 4 to 1 over the next nearest brand!

Swing in at the Sunoco Sign and begin enjoying new performance in your car... at a saving on every mile you drive.

Save up to 2¢ a gallon over other high-test gasolines

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 26.—Denise Darcel, Hollywood's newest importation from Paris, won the coveted part of the line girl in MGM's big World War II "Battle of Britain" because of her walk.

Dozens of screen sirens were under consideration for the part of the French girl who is the object of the romantic affections of Van Johnson, John Hodiak, Ricardo Montalban, George Murphy, Marshall Thompson, Jerome Courtland, Don Taylor, Bruce Cowling, James Whitmore, Douglas Fowley, Leon Ames and Richard Jaeckel—to name but a few in the near all-male cast.

Wins By Walk
In fact another actress was almost signed for the part when Denise was stepped onto the set. William Wellman, the man who directed the big epic of the war, told Denise that the part was taken.

Denise started to leave. She was walking from the set and conversation suddenly ceased. Wellman shouted at her:

"Hey, wait a minute. The part is yours."
It was the provocative walk of Denise that won her the part. Wellman describes it as the "most sultry walk ever to appear on celluloid."

"Battle of Britain" was Denise's first film. "Tarzan and the Slave Girl," soon to be released, is the second. In the latter she makes friends with apes, elephants and jungle cats and makes screen love to Lex Barker.

Former Shopgirl
Denise swung into the limelight for the first time in Paris in 1945 when she was adjudged winner of France's first annual "Pygmalion contest." She was a shopgirl at the time. She was duly glamorized and made the rounds of all the Paris night clubs. Movie offers poured in from a half dozen European countries—and Hollywood. The latter she took.

In Paris she was known as the "Queen of the GIs." During her first months in Hollywood, she said, she was disappointed in the eligible males around town.

"They weren't polite and nice like the GIs I knew in Paris," she related. "I think any girl new to a town meets the bad ones first—they were what you call wolves."

Denise leaves Saturday on an eastern personal appearance tour in the interest of the Armistice Day premier of "Battle of Britain."

She will sing sultry French songs such as "Symphonie," "J'Attends" and "Rue Pigalle."

She will also walk as she does in the picture. And that ought to pack 'em in.

DOGS SOMETIMES DISLIKE PETTING
CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—(INS)—Like drinking and driving, drinking and dog-petting sometimes don't mix.

A Chicago man, Clement Mischowski, paid a $25 fine yesterday because his dog bit five persons in four taverns the pair recently visited.

Mischowski explained sadly: "He's a good watchdog, but I suppose he's not used to being petted."

"Ironrite helped smooth out the kinks in my back"

says Mrs. Burl Woodward
4193 Biddle Avenue
Wayne, Michigan

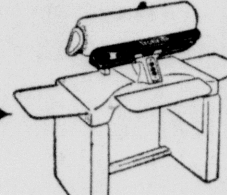

1. "I can recommend Ironrite to any woman who wants to end the back-breaking drudgery of hand ironing."

"Not long ago I had a major spinal operation. My doctor advised a whole year of rest from hard work like hand ironing. But with the big washings and ironings to be done in my family, that was impossible. So my husband bought me a washer and an Ironrite Automatic Ironer."

"I still have to take it easy 5 or 6 hours a day, but when I sit down and iron at my Ironrite, I completely relax. Everything's just right for comfort; there's no stretching, no strain."

"Believe me, Ironrite has helped smooth out the kinks in my back. If you value your health, and appearance, too—see an Ironrite dealer today. Ask him to demonstrate the Ironrite for you."

Model 80. New, improved open-model Ironrite Automatic Ironer. Finished in easy-to-clean white enamel. Also Model 85 (shown above) closed-top Ironrite.

Model 88. Smart, distinctive Ironrite Cabinet model with gorgeous warp-proof hardwood top in choice of brown mahogany finish or honey blond finish. Harmonizes with finest furniture.

2. "With 21 shirts to iron each week, hand ironing would be absolutely out of the question for me. But with my Ironrite, I can iron a whole week's wash in practically no time."

3. "Thanks to Ironrite's two completely adjustable open ends, I can iron everything, with nothing to finish by hand. Even puffs and ruffles are easy, on handy Do-all ironing points."

take place. Worthy President George Cowan announced today. This will represent a cost of around $165,000, it is stated.

During the remodeling work, which includes the entire building, members have been a little cramped for space, but with the opening of the entire first floor section today they will be able to enjoy most of the fine facilities which have been embodied in the rebuilding program of New Castle aerie.

Entrance on South Street

When the remodeling work is finally complete, entrance to the building will be from South street, instead of Jefferson street, and the South street entrance will be used as soon as work has been completed on laying the sidewalk along that section of the building. This will be within the next week, it is expected.

The front rooms, which were formerly used for lounging and reading rooms for the members, have been joined into one large room, and while the permanent furniture for this room has not as yet been received, some of the furniture for the club rooms will be used temporarily. The secretary's office has also been enlarged and refurbished in modern style.

The entire first floor section of the new addition is being devoted to club rooms for the members, with a separate section for the entertainment of the ladies of the members.

New Furniture In

Fine new modern furniture has been installed, which will accommodate several hundred at one time. In addition there are private shower rooms and game rooms.

On the second floor will be located the assembly room and ballroom, which is around 45 by 75 feet in size. This room is virtually finished, but will not be ready for use for another month or so. Some of the kitchen equipment, and some of the furniture has not as yet been received, but when it

Community Clubs Aid Chest Fund

Forty-One Organizations Have Made Contributions To $127,350
Campaign

Service clubs, societies and other organizations of New Castle are establishing fine precedents in regard to contribution to the New Castle Community Chest.

These groups, made up of individuals who are solicited as such in their homes and places of business, have donated generously so that the Community Chest might make its goal of $127,350. The power of example, set by some 41 organizations already, should lead to additional contributions from other clubs.

The groups donating realize that 13 agencies, with carefully prepared budgets, designed to give the most in welfare services at a minimum cost, must have a full Chest to operate successfully during the coming year.

Team Captain Alex Samuels, working under Homer Choate, public service division chairman, has contacted almost every organization in the county and explained the cause of the Chest either by letter or a short talk. The results show that his efforts bore fruit but there are still many, many individuals and clubs that need to be contacted and make a contribution so that the 1949 drive will be a success.

Contributing Groups
Leading contributing organizations to date include: Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Grand International Auxiliary, Albino Roumania Beneficial Society, American Federation of Musicians, American Gold Star Mothers, Beta Sigma Phi (Epsilon Gamma Chapter), B'Nai B'Rith No. 609, Order of the Builders, Degree of Honor Protective Association Lodge No.

Higgins Battles O'Neil, Moran Boxes Brown, In Arena Ring Tonight

Higgins, Moran Heavy Punchers

Arkett Slated To Box Glisson, Nulph Scheduled To Box Sanders

Eddie O'Neil, a Puerto Rican of Detroit, and Chuck Higgins, colored, of Youngstown, both middleweights, are awaiting the bell for their eight-round fight which will be the feature battle on tonight's five-bout docket in The Arena. Frankie Moran, local southpaw, is slated to fight Bobby Brown of Detroit in the six-round semi-final. The first bout begins at 8:30 p. m.

It will be O'Neil's first appearance in New Castle. Higgins has boxed here previously. O'Neil is said to have swapped punches with Walter Cartier, Art Towne, Cecil Hudson and also Jake LaMotta, prior to Jake's capture of the middleweight championship of the world.

Higgins' ability is known here, in Ellwood City, Youngstown and Pittsburgh. Since turning professional he has earned a reputation for consistency, having captured all excepting two of his pro fights. He hopes to put O'Neil through an acid test tonight.

Although no Fancy Dan, Frankie Moran owns a punch capable of turning any opponent over. Just how good Brown is remains to be seen, his manager, Merle Richards, not having forwarded any advance accounts of his past performances. They are down for six rounds.

Baxter Off Card
The State Boxing commission has refused to permit Russell Baxter, local middleweight, to box tonight, because of defeats before he became inactive. Tommy Leach, matchmaker of the Jefferson A. C., says, however, he will have a capable opponent for Billy Grumbacker, Youngstown middleweight.

Ellwood City fans will root vigorously for their townsman, Tony Arkett, who battles Jimmy Glisson of Detroit in a four-rounder, at 130 pounds, while rugged Chuck Nulph, a veteran of New Bethlehem, is scheduled to take on Jackie Sanders of Youngstown in the first four-round bout at 135 pounds.

The State Athletic commission will name the two referees, two judges and the timekeeper immediately before the first bout goes on at 8:30 p. m. The Jefferson A. C. is scheduled to open the doors at 7:30 p. m.

The public is cordially invited to attend the shoot. The field is two miles north of Enon Valley on the Enon Valley-Petersburg road.

Archie Logan To Replace Russ

Archie Logan of Akron, a middleweight, has been signed by Matchmaker Tommy Leach of the Jefferson Athletic club, to replace Russell Baxter against Billy Grumbacker of Youngstown, on tonight's pugilistic card in The Arena.

POINTERS ON THE SYSTEM

Like All-American football teams and bowl bids, the WPIAL point system for determining two teams to participate in a championship playoff game comes up for controversial discussion about this time every year.

The system had its origin here in New Castle and is a unique method of determining mathematically who among undefeated teams in the WPIAL should engage in a championship game without a long series of playoffs. These are very impractical in all football except the pros. The latter play each other in a closed circuit and don't care if the season lasts until Easter if the gates hold up and there is some game that can be billed as important toward determining a champion.

Deriving Figure

Very simply the point system figure for each team is derived thusly:

An undefeated contender in league play receives 100 points for each WPIAL victory and each team must participate in at least five games. Quality points are added to this total on the basis of 10 points for each league victory won by a defeated opponent and five points of each tie that a defeated opponent plays. The total sum is then divided by the number of games played.

When a team participates in more than five games it can use the quality points earned by the five most worthy opponents.

Hence, it can be seen that the system tries to pick playoff contenders that played a schedule of opponents that can win some of their ball games and the contender is not in the playoff game because it has got past a series of "breathers."

The system does not always succeed in its purpose and the best teams are often eliminated from the playoff game because of it. However, no one has yet come up with a better plan that would satisfactorily solve the problem and still meet with the approval of the WPIAL heads.

Because a team must first win all of its games in league play before it is even eligible for the playoff game, computing point totals beforehand is a matter of pure speculation that can change readily from week to week depending on how previously defeated opponents fare in league games.

Hurricane Standing
If New Castle should defeat both Washington and Aliquippa in the next two games the Red Hurricane should be in a very good position to make the playoff game.

Defeating a team like Har-Brack has already added 50 quality points to the total. If Aliquippa is undefeated the night it plays here and if the visitors lose, at least 40 more quality points will be obtained. The Sharon-Farrell battle will be worth 10 points no matter who wins because the Red and Black has already defeated both of those clubs.

McKeesport and Charleroi and the winner of the New Castle-Aliquippa game appear to be the three top contenders for the playoff game. Next week may find some of the contenders eliminated as the results of Friday night's encounters throughout the area should make speculation on the playoff game a little more reliable.

As stated previously in this column, don't start making reservations in Pittsburgh for the playoff game at the Stadium November 26. On the other hand don't plan to be in Wyoming visiting your mother-in-law on that day either. The local high school football team may be seeking its seventh WPIAL championship in the "big city."

New Castle Holds Decided Edge In Series With Washington High

New Castle tangles with another of its oldest rivals Friday night at Washington, Pa.

The series with the Presidents started back in 1927 and was continuous until 1943. After a four-year lapse, the two clubs renewed grid warfare last season.

New Castle has a decided advantage in previous games played, having won 14, lost 3, tied 1. The tie was a scoreless battle in 1928, and the three defeats came in succession starting in 1929. Although the Presidents have not been able to dent the win column in recent years, there have been some awfully close and well contested ball games in the series.

The 1934 champions of the WPIAL won by a 9-to-6 score. Two one point victories, 13-12 and 7-6 were registered in 1937 and 1938. The WPIAL champs of 1942, managed to squeeze by with a 13 to 7 win.

Varied Offense
Washington coach Hank Day employs a variety of systems to enlive his team's offense. These include single wing, straight T winged T and split T.

The popular high school mentor has had lots of coaching experience in the district. After enjoying a lot of success at Washington High, Day was promoted to the position of head grid coach at Washington and Jefferson college. Later he handled Farrell High and then returned to Washington three years ago. He has not had as much success as place as in his first tenure at Washington High.

Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh saw the Presidents lose to Monessen 20 to 0 last Saturday. Bridenbaugh says that he saw a good team in defeat and is therefore taking no chances with his boys having a let-down Friday.

Practice Passes
The undefeated Red and Black varsity practiced in the dreary rain yesterday afternoon with pads. The workout was short and not too rough. Various pass plays came in for a little brushing under fire and general loosening up was in order.

Buck Tate did not participate in the drills and Mike Banko is still being treated for a bruised knee. The rest of the squad, with the exception of Mangino and Mancine, are recovering satisfactorily from the Har-Brack encounter and will be ready to go Friday night.

HURRICANE BREEZES

Massillon, Ohio's leading high school team met defeat at the hands of the Mansfield eleven last weekend. . . . First team tackle, DeFalco, has an initial monicker of Dan and not Dante as previously reported. . . . Aliquippa meets once tied Beaver Falls in the big game on the valley card this weekend. . . . First down totals so far this season favor the Canes over the opponents, 62 to 45. Erie Academy and Carrick both made more FD's than their conquerors. . . . The lowest total in a single game was five. This number was registered in the Carrick and Erie Academy plays.

County Sportsmen Plan Field Trial

Public Invited To Attend Trials At Murphy Farm Saturday Afternoon

The public is invited to attend the field trial to be held Saturday, October 29, by the Lawrence County Coon Hunters association, it was announced by D. N. Reno.

The trial will be held on the James F. Murphy farm, two miles east of West Pittsburg, at 2 o'clock. Signs will be posted to show the way.

This event is for night dogs only, it is announced.

Quarter Back Club Dines

Second Weekly Dinner And Discussion Takes Place At Elks Tuesday

Members of the 69 Quarter Back club enjoyed their second weekly dinner at the Elks dining room last evening with another interesting program.

After filling up on delicious well grilled steaks, and the trimmings, Chairman Reuben Kennedy of the Quarter Back club assumed the role of toastmaster and got the "game started". Kennedy first made several opening and well chosen remarks.

Prior to eating, the invocation was offered by Austin Cowmeadow.

Bridenbaugh Talks
First to be called upon by Toastmaster Kennedy was the old "Silver Fox", Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh. "Bridy" first introduced the two high school varsity football guests of the club, Dick Altman and Amen Hassen, both spoke very briefly. Altman is a backfield man, Hassen a lineman.

Bridenbaugh was then plied with questions by the assembled group, and he gave satisfactory answers to all questions, even to the well beat up soft felt hat that took a terrific pounding last week. "Bridy" paid credit to an alert ball club that beat Har-Brack 19 to 0.

The following were introduced and spoke briefly: Paul Cuba, Robert Stewart, Norman Zeigler and assistant coach George Thomas.

Movies Enjoyed
The evening ended with assistant coach Bill Klee showing movies of New Castle-Har-Brack game, and with the coaches at various times pointing out plays that were outstanding.

Already the 69 Quarter Back club is looking forward to next Tuesday evening and another enjoyable evening with a genuine well prepared Elks club meal to start the ball rolling.

Veteran Athletics Scout Will Retire

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26. — (INS)—Tom Turner, veteran scout for the Philadelphia Athletics, ended a 35-year career in baseball yesterday with the announcement of his retirement.

Turner, former president of the Portland, Ore., club, is credited with sending pitchers Larry French, Rube Walberg and Freddie Heimach to the majors.

His most recent success was the recommendation to the A's of Alex Kellner, rookie southpaw, who won 20 games this season for the Mackmen.

THIEL GROVERS CLASH SATURDAY
GROVE CITY, Oct. 26.—Despite the fact that the Grovers played their best ball of the season against Allegheny on Saturday, Coach Loveless has his squad hard at work in preparation for the Parent's Day tilt with traditionally tough Thiel this week-end.

Thiel has long been a nemesis to Grove City. Coach Jack Steeber somehow always gets his team up to play its best ball against Grove City. Since Loveless took over at Grove City in 1937, Thiel has captured four of the eight engagements with the Wolverines winning three and one game ending in a tie. The two teams did not meet in 1942 and they discontinued football during the war years of 1943, 1944 and 1945.

Brooklyn Dodgers Want Glenn Davis

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—(INS)—Lieut. Glenn Davis is ready to sign a professional baseball contract and Branch Rickey is ready to hire him for the Brooklyn Dodgers—but it can't happen now.

Davis, great halfback of the wartime West Point football team and currently on the Academy's coaching staff, will not be eligible for discharge until next June.

There is a possibility also that his request to be permitted to resign his commission will be turned down by the War Department.

Meanwhile, Rickey confirmed today upon his return east that he was interested in the Army outfielder, but refused to comment on reports that he would pay Davis a $40,000 bonus to sign.

New York Bulldogs Obtain New Material

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—(INS)—The New York Bulldogs, plastered by five straight defeats in the National Pro Football league, added three new players to the roster today as part of the preparation for Sunday's game with the Washington Redskins.

The newcomers, all two-year veterans in the league, are: Larry Olsonowski, 214-pound guard, and El Smith, 185-pound back, both obtained from the Green Bay Packers, and Ace Prescott, big pass-catching end from the Philadelphia Eagles.

Olsonowski played his college football at Minnesota, Smith at Texas Mines and Prescott at Hardin-Simmons.

Penn State's next football opponent, Syracuse university, last defeated the Nittany Lions in 1937.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—(INS)—Buddy Parker assumed full command of the coaching duties of the Chicago Cardinals football team today.

Parker was given the sole leadership yesterday when Phil Handler was named vice president in charge of procurement.

Handler and Parker became co-coaches of the Cardinals this year following the resignation of Jimmy Conzelman.

The Cardinals won the National Professional Football league championship in 1947 and captured western divisions honors last year.

Union High Meets Mercer Mustangs Away On Friday

Union high school takes to the road this week to try and extend its win streak to three straight, against the Mustangs of Mercer Friday night.

The Scotland Laners completed their home season last week with probably their best game of the year in spite of injuries and will be out Friday night to improve upon their away-from-home record that shows no victories and two defeats.

Game Toss-Up
Mercer has a three and four record for the year compared to just the reverse for Union. One of the teams that Mercer defeated, however, was Zelenople, which dumped Union for its only loss at home this season, 7-0.

Mercer also has a victory over Shenango and a loss to Bessemer, ditto for Union.

It should be quite a football game and a real test for the revitalized Scotland Laners, who have really been tough their last two time out.

PROMOTION ON RECORD?

Throughout the Primaries this one-man dominated machine candidate for District Attorney advertised again and again that he has been Assistant District Attorney for over seven years and asked you voters to promote him to the office of District Attorney, relying on the record of that office for the last eight years.

One of the chief duties of District Attorney is that of a trial lawyer. He should with diligence prosecute all criminals, who have violated the law, before a jury and should secure verdicts of guilty against those who have violated our laws.

The criminal courts of Lawrence County are held every three months—in March, June, September, and December—at which time all criminals are tried who violated the law during the preceding three months.

THE RECORD OF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE FOR TRIAL OF CRIMINALS WHICH THE PRESIDENT CANDIDATE QUOTES WITH PRIDE AND ASKS TO BE PROMOTED ON: SEPT., 1949, 4 wins, 2 losses, 1 partial win, 1 jury disagreement; JUNE, 1949, 5 losses, 1 partial win; MARCH, 1949, 2 losses, 1 win; DEC., 1948 Abandoned, no cases; SEPT., 1948, 4 losses, 1 win; JUNE, 1948, 3 losses, 1 win; MARCH, 1948, 2 wins, 1 loss, 1 partial win; DEC., 1947, 3 losses, 2 wins; SEPT., 1947, Abandoned, no cases; JUNE, 1947, 1 loss, 1 win; MARCH, 1947, 2 wins, 2 losses, 4 partial wins; DEC., 1946, 3 losses, 5 wins, 1 jury disagreement; SEPT., 1946, 1 win, 1 jury disagreement; JUNE, 1946, Abandoned, no cases; MARCH, 1946, 1 loss, 1 win; DEC., 1945, 1 win, 1 partial win; SEPT., 1945, Abandoned, no cases; JUNE, 1945, Abandoned, no cases; MARCH, 1945, Abandoned, no cases; DECEMBER 1944, 1 win, 1 partial win.

Space does not permit me to go back further, but you have my assurance that the remaining three years are no better. IF THIS CANDIDATE ASKS A PROMOTION ON THIS RECORD, WHAT WOULD HE ASK IF THE RECORD WAS GOOD?

For The Good Of Lawrence County, This One-Man Dominated Machine Must Be Defeated.

Pro Grid War Believed Near Solution Now

By PAT ROBINSON
(International News Service Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The stage appeared set today for an end to ruinous professional football war. Last week Dan Topping, of the New York Yankees of the All American Conference, waved an olive branch in the general direction of the rival National Football League.

Today several members of the NFL indicated that they would be willing to talk peace at the end of the current season.

One Strong League
The National Leagues still cannot envisage a two-league set-up even after a peace pact has been signed. But they would like to see one league of perhaps 12 teams, divided equally between east and west.

One NFL owner who doesn't wish to be named said that under such a set-up the weaker clubs of both the NFL and the AAC would be dropped.

"We had two real bars to any peace last year," said this owner.

One was the fact that Baltimore had been guaranteed it would have a club for two years. That contract ends this year.

"Another was that Branch Rickey and his Dodgers had some two-year contract players who had to be taken care of. This has been done through amalgamation with the Yankees. That difficulty, too, will have passed with this season.

"Nobody can make any money under the present set-up. All this talk about football war or peace takes up space that could better be devoted to the players and the games.

"For instance, I doubt that anybody cares to read about Dan Topping of the Yankees or Tim Mara of the Giants. But they are interested in football players like Buddy Young of the Yanks or Charley Conerly of the Giants.

Hershey Bears Get Young Star

HERSHEY, Pa., Oct. 26.—(INS)—Ed Kryzanowski, 23-year-old Boston Bruin backliner, will join Hershey tonight in an attempt to bolster the injury-riddled Bears in a tilt with the St. Louis Flyers.

Hershey, the Bruins' farm club in the American League, has won only two of its first five games.

Kryzanowski played 18 games with Hershey last season before being returned to the parent club in time for the National League playoffs.

WHITE SOX RELEASE COACH BING MILLER

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—(INS)—Edmund (Bing) Miller was released today as coach of the Chicago White Sox Baseball club.

General Manager Frank Lane notified Miller at his home in Philadelphia following a recommendation of Manager Jack Onslow.

The 55-year-old one-time major league outfielder has been with the White Sox eight years. He previously had coached the Boston Red Sox, and the Detroit Tigers.

Bill Corum May Get Derby Post

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 26.—(INS)—Bill Corum, nationally famous sports writer, reportedly today is the No. 1 choice of Churchill Downs officials, to succeed the late Col. Matt Winn as operator of the Kentucky Derby.

Corum, a sports columnist for the New York Journal-American and International News Service, has been moved to the head of the list of candidates in the past few days, according to reports, but officials declined to comment today.

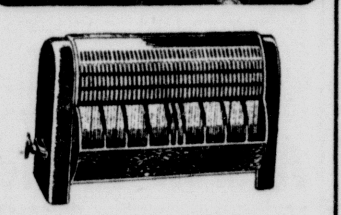

REDSKINS CASTING EYES ON LEAHY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—(INS)—Rumors circulated today that the Washington Redskins will try to fire head coach Vice Adm. John E. Wheelchel at the end of the season and seek to hire Notre Dame's Frank Leahy.

Leahy's services reportedly are being sought by Leo Deorsey, a minority stockholder and a member of the Redskins board of directors, who said in a statement: "I am dissatisfied with the entire coaching setup. I've said that before and I repeat it."

Don and Bill Ashenfelter are following in their brother's footsteps as Penn State cross-country runners.

Court House

Early Property Razing Complete

Wreckers Level Home And Fill In Cellar Excavation —Ready For New Detention Home

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

What was a landmark for many years in New Castle has been removed. The Early home near the court house has been razed to make room for a detention and juvenile home.

The work of razing the old mansion was started October 4 by George Griffith. A 30-day time limit was imposed but Mr. Griffith and his associates have completed the work well within the 30 days.

Not only has the home been razed but the cellar excavation has been filled and the ground surrounding it cleaned. Whenever the commissioners want to start the new detention home the ground is ready.

There are a number of unusual trees upon the property, several of which no one has named. One tree, a black persimmon, has about a bushel of persimmons on it, but not a leaf. The tree has a heavy cork like bark much like a black gum.
